CONDITIONS OF SALE

The property listed in this catalogue will be offered and sold subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The word "Galleries," wherever used in these Conditions of Sale, means the Parke-Bernet Galleries, Inc.
2. The Galleries has exercised reasonable care to catalogue and describe correctly the property to be sold, but it does not warrant the correctness of description, genuineness, authenticity or condition of said property.
3. Unless otherwise announced by the auctioneer at the time of sale, all bids are to be for a single article even though more than one article is included under a numbered item in the catalogue. If, however, the articles under any one numbered item are designated as a "Lot" then bids are to be for the lot irrespective of the number of articles described in such item.
4. The highest bidder accepted by the auctioneer shall be the buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders the auctioneer may in his discretion, determine who is the successful bidder and his decision shall be final; or the auctioneer may reoffer and resell the article in dispute.
5. Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered, or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance over the previous bid, may be rejected by the auctioneer in his discretion, if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.
6. The name and address of the buyer of each article, or lot, shall be given to the Galleries immediately following the sale thereof, and payment of the whole purchase price, or such part thereof as the Galleries may require, shall be immediately made by the purchaser thereof. If the foregoing condition, or any other applicable condition herein, is not complied with, the sale may, at the option of the Galleries, be canceled, and the article, or lot, reoffered for sale.
7. Unless the sale is advertised and announced as an unrestricted sale, or a sale without reserve, consignors reserve the right to bid.
8. Except as herein otherwise provided, title will pass to the highest bidder upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter the property is at the purchaser's sole risk and responsibility.
9. Articles sold and not paid for in full and not taken by noon of the day following the sale may be turned over by the Galleries to a carrier to be delivered to a storehouse for the account and risk of the purchaser, and at his cost. If the purchase price has not been so paid in full, the Galleries may either cancel the sale, and any partial payment already made shall thereupon be forfeited as liquidated damages, or it may resell the same, without notice to the buyer and for his account and risk, and hold him responsible for any deficiency.

10. If for any cause whatsoever any article sold cannot be delivered, or cannot be delivered in as good condition as the same may have been at the time of sale, the sale will be canceled, and any amount that may have been paid on account of the sale will be returned to the purchaser.

11. Unless exempt from the payment thereof, the buyer will be required to pay the Federal Excise Tax, effective October 1, 1941, equivalent to 10 per centum of the price for which so sold on "all articles commonly or commercially known as jewelry, whether real or imitation; pearls, precious or semi-precious stones and imitations thereof; articles made of, or ornamented, mounted or fitted with precious metals or imitations thereof; watches and clocks and cases and movements therefor; gold, gold-plated, silver, silver-plated or sterling flatware or hollow ware, etc." Also on "articles made of fur on the hide or pelt, and articles of which such fur is the component material of chief value."

12. Unless exempt from the payment thereof, the buyer will also be required to pay the New York City sales tax of 2 per centum of the price for which all articles are sold.

13. The Galleries, subject to these Conditions of Sale and to such terms and conditions as it may prescribe, but without charge for its services, will undertake to make bids for responsible parties approved by it. Requests for such bidding must be given with such clearness as to leave no room for misunderstanding as to the amount to be bid and must state the catalogue number of the item and the name or title of the article to be bid on. If bids are to be made on several articles listed as one item in the catalogue, the request should state the amount to be bid on each article, unless the item contains the notation "Lot," in which case the request should state the amount to be bid "For the Lot." The Galleries reserves the right to decline to undertake to make such bids.

14. The Galleries will facilitate the employment of carriers and packers by purchasers but will not be responsible for the acts of such carriers or packers in any respect whatsoever.

15. These Conditions of Sale cannot be altered except in writing by the Galleries or by public announcement by the auctioneer at the time of sale.

FOREWORD

THE collection which it is our privilege to offer at this time was assembled personally by Mr Herbert D. Robbins during his frequent visits to Europe, for the furnishing of his New York residence at 1034 Fifth Avenue, built in 1906 and planned as to the interior by the noted French architect, Sanson of Paris. The furniture, which is predominately French in character (although some English pieces are included), comprises an assortment of commodes, cabinets, secrétaires, seat furniture, tables, and consoles by or after eighteenth century French ébénistes. Specifically, we may note a pair of Louis XV laqué consoles attributed to François Delafosse and formerly in the celebrated collection of Mlle Lelong of Paris; a pair of Louis XVI marqueterie drum-shaped small commodes of Sicilian origin and evincing an uncommon sophistication; a pleasingly simple Louis XVI writing table by Mathieu-Guillaume Cramer; and a highly desirable set of six Régence carved walnut and canné side chairs with green velvet cushions. Additional to the foregoing is a number of fine examples of French cabinetwork executed by André after celebrated ébénisterie in the Louvre and the Invalides, notably the bois de rose marqueterie secrétaire à abattant and its companion piece, a chiffonier, both after Oeben.

Complementary to the furniture are the girandoles, clocks, chenets and flambeaux, some of which are the work of the noted Paris fondeur, Eugène Hazart, and possess the rare mercury finish; others were acquired through Mme Doucet, the eminent antiquaire, and other prominent Paris dealers.

A few paintings well calculated to enhance the architectural and decorative setting, include natures mortes by Jan van Huysum, signed and dated 1737, and by Desportes, also a signed pair of cartouche-shaped paintings from the series of twelve by Lajoue originally in the collection of the Duc de Picquigny. These were recorded in the celebrated French work on decoration known as Les Maîtres Ornemanistes, Dessinateurs, Peintres, Architectes, Sculpteurs, et Graveurs by Desiré Guilmard.

The collection is completed by a group of Chinese porcelains of the Ming, K'ang-hsi and Ch'ien-lung periods; table china, including a Coalport dessert service and a pair of Louis XV Sèvres porcelain seaux, painted by Baudouin; and Georgian and French silver, notably a finely wrought tea service with tray by Odier of Paris, a service of flatware, and a garniture of serving dishes by Ed. Tétar, Paris, in the Louis XV taste.
